In the Interim: January Thoughts

As the boat nears Daufuskie Island, the fog thins. Visibility improves. The sun emerges. On the dock, Daufuskie residents say it's a wonder the Wednesday boat arrived at all. In recent weeks, clear mornings have been non-existent, and the boat has never left the dock at Hilton Head.

From long ago summers in coastal Maine, I'm familiar with the dampening effect fog can have on vacation plans. I'd expected the Daufuskie trip to be cancelled. I'd said Oh well, and Maybe, there's another good movie around. (We'd already seen Star Wars.) So when the boat did leave, and the sun did emerge, I decided there had to be a message in there somewhere.

The second year of an interim transition focuses on the ministerial search. Excitement builds. New projects are postponed and decisions tabled until the new minister gets here. That is as things should be. In the meantime, there's still transitional work to be done. Lately I've been asking myself where to put my energies: What to lift up? What to let go?

Religion is embedded in time, place, and culture. Culture is subject to inevitable forces of change. Since I began serving UUMAN as your interim minister, I've alluded often to shifting conditions for "being church" in this unsettled and unsettling era. If you've been a Unitarian Universalist for at least 5 to 10 years, what has changed for you in that time? If you've joined UUMAN more recently, or haven't made up your mind yet, what are your hopes and expectations? What does the history and theology of Unitarian Universalism have to do with either question? As the future of our liberal faith moves forward, what is emerging that may previously have blurred our vision?

What to lift up now? What to let go?

Ministerial Search Committee

News You Can Use – January 2016

Your Ministerial Search Committee (MSC) is pleased to provide you with another installment of News You Can Use—an update on what we've been up to. We are excited about our section on the new uuman.org website, where you can find the latest information about the search!

What has the MSC been doing?

The survey results have been tallied and the report may be viewed on the UUMAN website under the Ministerial Search section.

Also in this section is a wealth of information about our congregation that may be viewed by interested ministers! This includes a description of our history, our programs and activities, and some general information about the local area.

Prospective ministers have also been viewing our Congregational Record on the UUA transitions website. The CR is our best opportunity to attract ministers' interest. It describes UUMAN's history, strengths, opportunities, and hopes for the future. Prospective ministers began reviewing our CR during December.

What will happen over the next couple of months?

After reviewing the CR, candidates who are interested in UUMAN will notify the UUA. We expect to have a report from the UUA in mid-January with a group of candidates identified. We will then send our informational packet to each candidate, and begin reviewing each candidate's Ministerial Record.

We will conduct an initial telephone interview with each candidate and review any information that is sent to us. We will then narrow our selection to what we feel and think are the best three candidates for UUMAN. These "pre-candidates" will be invited to Georgia in February/March for candidating weekends. Their identities will be kept confidential until one is chosen over the others.

Communicating with You

- We will continue to provide you a 5-minute update on our work from the pulpit on the last Sunday of every month.
- We will continue articles in the monthly newsletter, the UUMAN-Times.
- We will send out updates and time-sensitive information via UUMAN Announcements and the UUMAN Facebook page.
- We will be present during coffee hour after every service at the MSC table in Fellowship Hall. Look for our bright pink nametags and ask us a question!

- We will continue to post important information to the MSC bulletin board in Fellowship Hall.
- We will update the search committee website as new information becomes available.

How to contact the MSC

- Email: search@uuman.org
- In person: before and after Sunday services; look for the people wearing bright pink nametags.

In faith,

Now that 2015 is behind us, it's time to start thinking about the new year. For many reasons 2016 is a banner year for UUMAN— besides calling a new minister, we will be celebrating our 25th Anniversary! It was 25 years ago this month that a group of like-minded individuals came together to form UUMAN and start it down the path of serving the north Atlanta metro area of Georgia.

Of course many good things have happened since that day in January 1991. I won't try to recount them here, but instead will encourage you to make sure you attend the 25th Anniversary celebrations on February 6 and 7 when we will take time to remember where we've been and where we are going.

The celebration all begins Saturday night, February 6th, the UUMAN ReUUnion with music and dancing, good food and spirits, a slide show of UUMAN's past, present, and future, and many surprises. Childcare will be provided and we'll have special activities for our youth. Sunday, February 7th, will start with a special inter-generational service celebrating our 25 years, followed by UUMAN's 25th birthday party for the whole family, especially the young ones.

This ReUUnion is for all current and former members and friends of UUMAN, and especially past and present MCY attendees. We hope you will join us, from near or far, for this very special weekend.

We have special 25th anniversary t-shirts available for $15 each to help us celebrate this occasion. The sizes run from Youth Medium, through Ladies and Men's XL (Ladies' and Men's 2X and 3X are also available). If you would like to order one, please email Bev Jordan at btjordan@mindspring.com and she will give you the measurements and other details.

Come celebrate the history, the present, and the future of UUMAN. Looking forward to seeing YOU and YOURS on February 6 and 7, 2016!!

Are You Ready for Revolutionary Love?

From Saturday, January 16 through Sunday, February 14, the Social Justice Committee is inviting you to celebrate 30 days of love. We are joining Standing of the Side of Love and other UU congregations in "re-imagining Valentine's Day as a social justice holiday." This year's focus is racial justice.

Stay tuned for messages that will be shared through UUMAN announcements, the Order of Worship, and on the UUMAN Facebook page. We are also inviting you to stop by the Social Justice table in Fellowship Hall to share how you are standing on the side of love. During this time, please feel free to wear your Standing on the Side of Love, Black Lives Matter, or other t-shirt to represent your favorite social justice cause.

A Month of Sundays

Date	Topic	Speaker
1/3	A Different New Year New Year's Resolutions? It's about our choices, including whether or not we reflect, without distractions, about what we might do better for ourselves this year.	Lay Speaker Paula Watson
1/10	Beneath the Quilt Many years ago Celestine Sibley, the beloved columnist, wrote of a Kentucky woman's homespun musings about the theological message inherent in patchwork quilting. There is truth in those musings, but there is a deeper truth beneath the colorful surface of the quilt that offers a rich lesson for how we live into the mission of our beloved religious community.	Lay Speaker Dave Hudson
1/17	In the Steps of Dr. King A multi-generational service. The Social Justice Committee will introduce the Unitarian Universalist Association's Thirty Days of Love project.	Rev. Cynthia Prescott
1/24	Far Enemy, Near Enemy Each of Buddhism's Four Immeasurables—loving-kindness, compassion, joy, and equanimity has a far enemy and a near enemy. Cruelty is the far enemy of compassion. That's apparent. However it's the near enemies that can trip us up—responses and emotions that seem wholesome enough at the time, but may lead indirectly to pain for ourselves and those around us.	Rev. Cynthia Prescott
1/31	Show Your Work Remember when the teacher asked you to write down every step in solving that math problem? A similar method is useful and when reflecting on our various spiritual paths and where they might be taking us next.	Rev. Cynthia Prescott

January Events

Beginning January 28 Monday 7:30—9:00 p.m., Discovery Hall	Spirit of Life A 9-session course offering participants space, time, and community to explore their Unitarian Universalist spirituality.
