722 Comedy Lessons - Todd Callen

Jerry Seinfeld once said that the number one fear people have is public speaking, and number two is death. This means that at a funeral, most people would rather be in the coffin than giving the eulogy! But it doesn't have to be this way – public speaking and performing are helpful and confidence-building regardless of who you are and what you do. Get outside (or inside) your comfort zone and join UUMAN's very own Todd Callen as he teaches you how to approach putting together a stand-up comedy act. Todd will work with you regardless of whether you think you are funny or not and turn you into a comedy star! The classes will be four weekly sessions beginning in January (times and days TBD) which will culminate in you preparing a 5-minute stand-up routine to be performed at the Annual UUMAN Talent Show on February 1st! Todd has had experience in both stand up and improvisation and has performed at Zany's and Second City in Chicago, The Punchline in Atlanta and every single day at home in Roswell! Sign up and become the next (first?) Unitarian Comedy Star! $100 per person. Limit: 8
